

Pick up a new Club Penguin book!

Young fans of *Club Penguin*TM can now look forward to even more chances to enjoy the fun and creativity of their favourite online destination offline in the New Year.

Three new books based on the phenomenally successful, snow-covered, virtual world will be available on store shelves in January 2010.

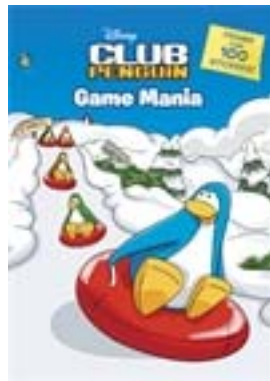

Thanks to its rich, imaginative play environment, filter system and team of highly-trained, live moderators, Club Penguin has developed an international reputation as a trusted provider of safe family fun.

The popularity of the virtual world has been matched by an equally enthusiastic response to Club Penguin merchandise with toys, games and books based on the penguin-populated virtual island flying out of stores around the globe.

Pick Your Path 1 Stowaway!

Pick Your Path is a new collectable series where the reader decides how the story ends. Key words from the books will also unlock additional content on the official Club Penguin site. Book 1 launches in January with more to follow in July and October. £3.99 each

Game Mania

Contains awesome tips and hints for playing favourite Club Penguin mini-games and re-usable stickers to decorate the game pages included in the book. £3.99

The Official Stage Playbook

All the advice you need to host your own Penguin plays live on the Club Penguin site. £4.99

For ages 8-12 years
