London 3 July 2003, Following Katharine Hepburn's death on Sunday, 29 June, Penguin is re-printing her memoir, Me: Stories Of My Life.

The memoir reflects upon Katharine Hepburn's childhood and youthful misadventures, tells of the ups and downs of her career, her early experience in the theatre and her rise to stardom. She describes her warm and sometimes stormy relationships with David Lean, George Cukor, Howard Hughes, Leland Hayward, Cary Grant amongst others, and the love of her life, Spencer Tracy.

"Compulsive reading" - Marie Claire

"She writes as she has lived – with magnificent disregard for convention...a memorable book" - Sunday Express

"An enchanting, altogether astonishing, maddening woman... the book has great style...she will have you trapped, a finger hooked in your buttonhole, and you will not be able to budge." - Dirk Bogarde, Daily Telegraph
